VOLUME 24, No. 33

NARBERTH, PENNSYLVANIA, MAY 20, 1938

PRICE, FIVE CENTS

Seven This Evening at Narbrook Park--The School's Big Pageant

Written and produced by the teachers and pupils of the Narberth Public School, an ambitious pageant telling the story of America will be given on the greenward of Narbrook Park at 7 o'clock this Friday evening. (In the event of rain, it will be postponed until 7 P. M. Monday.)

The teachers have worked since last fall, compiling data for the novel event, which takes the place of the usual operetta and Field Day, and recalls the good old days when the whole town turned out for a pageant that won nation-wide comment.

Special lighting and amplifiers have been arranged, so that the audience will have a good view and also hear the narrator.

The first part of the pageant, which is divided into five episodes, with several subdivisions, will open with an Indian scene in which the pupils of the second grade will take part. Then will appear the Dutch traders with the first grade students (all dressed as men), as the characters. Episode 3, Swedish traders impersonated by third grade boys and girls. In both of these, there will be dances and drills. In episode 4, the Welsh Quakers (4th graders), under William Penn and Thomas Wynne appear. The Shackamaxon treaty is signed at the

"The Library"

As a social force in the community" was a topic at Wednesday's meeting, in Narberth, of the Philadelphia District Library Association. The speaker was Kenneth L. M. Pray, a trustee of the Narberth Library and former Borough School Board president, who is dean of the Philadelphia School for Social Work.

The Library's Founder,

Mrs. Robert Fellows Wood, gave a talk on "This Year's Poetry."

Banquet, Dance

Will be the Last Two Junior Women's Club

Activities of the season. The banquet on May 25, at Bala Golf Club. Annual reports followed by bridge and games.

The dance will be Saturday, June 4, at Bala Golf Club, with Bert Kinzel's orchestra playing and Margie Hoffman as charming chairman. Hostesses are Mrs. Glenn Williams and Mrs. Spencer Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Scott, 219 Lantwyn lane, Narberth, are leaving this Friday by plane for Detroit, whence they will motor back, visiting en route General Motors factories. Mr. Scott is the new Main Line dealer for Delco Frigidaire products.

Franklin Dedicator

Dr. O. J. Snyder, Woodbine and Narberth avenues, Narberth, was commissioned by President Marvin, of George Washington University, to represent the university at the dedication exercises at the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia on May 19, 20, and 21. Dr. Snyder is an alumnus of the university.

Elected P. T. A.

President, Monday Night, Was Mrs. Charles L. Viguers

Who served this year as first vice-president. Other officers, nominated by a committee headed by Henry A. Frye, for a two-year term, and elected without opposition, are the Rev. Cleatus A. Senft, first vice-president; Miss Ethel C. Worst (third grade teacher), second vice-president; Mrs. Gerald Coholan, secretary, and Mrs. C. J. Brunell, treasurer.

Reports of a year teeming with activities were given by committee chairmen and by the retiring president, Mrs. E. A. Whiting, who was presented with the president's pin in recognition of her very successful two years' regime.

The school orchestra played two numbers under the direction of Joseph Barone. Miss Frances Fricke was the accompanist. A social hour followed.

The annual meeting for the children who will enter next fall will be Saturday, June 4, when the children will meet Miss Drain, the school nurse.

Zone Amendment

Before Court June 1; Incinerator Hearing Canceled

The final hearing on the bill in equity filed against Lower Merion Township by a group of Penn Valley and West Manayunk residents will be held June 1. The bill seeks to have the recently adopted amendment to the zoning ordinance declared unconstitutional and invalid.

The amendment permits the township to erect buildings deemed necessary for the public welfare in any location without regard for the zoning of the ground.

Commissioners canceled the public hearing scheduled for Wednesday night on the question of locating the incinerator on the proposed site adjoining the present dump. This was done in order that the court hearing on the bill in equity may be disposed of before the question is brought before the board at a public hearing.

In the bill, filed by Aaron S. Swartz, it is maintained that the action of the commissioners in fixing a hearing in accordance with the terms of the zoning ordinance amendment was of no effect because, it was asserted, the ordinance could not become effective until ten days after its publication in a newspaper.

Petitioners in the suit are Percival Roberts, Jr., Eugene Jordan, Guy Croyle, H. W. Madara, Germaine L. Lentz, Earl B. Wagner and Sarah L. Bussinger.

A Food Sale

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Narberth M. E. Church will be held 9 A. M. this Saturday at 217 Haverford avenue. Home-made cakes, pies, rolls, bread, pickled eggs and all the good things mother used to make.

Annual Concert

Of the Narberth Parent-Teacher Chorus—

Mrs. W. J. Drennen, director; Mrs. W. P. Dunnington, accompanist—will be given 8.15 P. M. Tuesday at the school auditorium. This year the women's chorus will be augmented by the men's double quartet or so, that has sung at several affairs during the season. The program:

Theme from Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, and Tchaikowsky's Sleeping Beauty Waltz—Narberth School Orchestra, directed by Joseph E. Barone.

Martin's "Come to the Fair" and Schubert's Serenade—Narberth School Glee Club, Francis Fricke, director.

Cadman's "The Builder" and Dickson-Lucas' "Thanks Be to God"—the mixed chorus, Mrs. Drennen directing.

Bolton's Minuet and "The Old Folks at Home"—Bryn Mawr Simphonietta, directed by Mr. Barone.

Beethoven's "Moonlight" and Kety's "In a Persian Market"—the women's chorus.

Caldicott's "Violet and the Bee" and Barnett's "Sing a Song of Sixpence"—the mixed chorus.

Spross' "Sweet, Sweet Lady;" Handel's Largo—with cello obligato by Wayne Army—and Reichardt's "In the Time of Roses"—women's chorus.

Geminiani's Concerto Grosso Op. 3 No. 5—the Simphonietta.

Griegs' "Land-Sighting"—the mixed chorus.

The women's chorus consists of Mesdames W. A. Burrows, Mary Bunting, Mildred Bailey, C. B. Clipsham, Robert Conly, A. J. Denman, R. B. Deer, Richard Gillis, Lowell Heller, James Irvine, S. O. Pruitt, John Stam, C. A. Senft, Frank Schrepfer, George Woodrow and C. S. Wilmot, and Miss Edith Stock.

The men: E. L. Stapp, Russell Basler, Henry Carr, W. James Drennen, Lewis W. Eashy, Fred Robb and Tom Elwood.

Earle Easy

Victor in Narberth; Magarity Candidates Win

Governor Earle won in a romp from S. Davis Wilson and Eddie McCloskey in Narberth voting on the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator. Totals for the three districts gave Earle, 251; Wilson, 95, and McCloskey, 22.

His running mate for Governor, Charles Alvin Jones, won the first and second precincts, but lost the third to Thomas J. Kennedy.

Local interest centered in the success of Joseph T. Magarity in keeping the borough's County Committee posts independent. All Guffey-rule candidates were defeated, although Mrs. Elizabeth D. M. Kelley came within five votes of capturing the second district committeewoman's job, but was defeated by Grace M. Bonner.

Another incumbent besides Mrs. Kelley lost when George W. Cook was defeated by Robert J. Wright, 46 to 27.

The vote by districts:

Spring Outing

Of the Lower Merion Rod and Gun Club

Will be this Saturday, at the Ridgway Farm, in Bethayres. There will be horse shoe pitching and bingo for the ladies; water boiling for juniors and seniors; pistol, rifle and trapshooting; fly and surf casting . . . and prizes and refreshments.

You get there by way of Ridge, Allegheny and Hunting Park avenues, Broad street, Old York road, Meeting House lane, Second street pike—and then left through Bethayres, and take a deep breath; then turn right at gas station in center of Bethayres, over this road to second road, then right across railroad tracks, then turn left at top of hill to Hallowridge Farm; that's it.

First deep-sea fishing trip of the year will be held in June, with Robert W. Weber in charge.

Wednesday night the club enjoyed motion pictures—at the Narberth Community Building—and held a business meeting.

The pictures were scenes in Quebec, the Canadian Rockies and Yosemite Park; duck hunting in New York; and quail hunting.

Plans were made for Saturday's outing, which begins at 1.30.

Congratulated Each Other

ARTHUR L. COOKE

Ahead by 7 votes on the first count

JOSEPH P. WHITE

Leading by 4 votes on the final stretch

The opposed candidates for Republican Committeeman in Narberth's District No. 1 waged a campaign that led to more votes than had ever before been cast in the district. At 10.30 P. M. Tuesday, Joe White congratulated his opponent, on the face of the official count just completed. Half an hour later, while both candidates amicably watched, the Elm Hall election officers completed a voluntary recount and Art Cooke did the congratulating.

By their actions at the finish, and at the polling place during the day, they demonstrated the good sportsmanship, the good-natured neighborliness even in the midst of a political fight—that are characteristic of the borough.

Ewing Carries

Borough, and White Defeats Cooke, 278 - 274

Samuel E. Ewing, Jr., Bryn Mawr attorney and defeated candidate for Republican State Senator nomination, upset local predictions when he carried the borough of Narberth over his victorious opponent, Franklin Spencer Edmonds, Whitmarsh tax expert and organization candidate.

Otherwise the County Executive Committee's indorsed slate piled up huge majorities here as elsewhere on Tuesday.

Ewing won the first and second districts, but lost the third to Edmonds by a 31-vote margin. His total plurality in the borough was 215, with the vote 867 to 642.

In the only local Republican contest, Joseph P. White defeated Arthur L. Cooke for first district county committeeman, 278 to 274. A recount was necessary before the result could be announced.

The vote by districts was:

First: U. S. Senator, James J. Davis, 499; G. Mason Owlett, 40; Edward Lowber Stokes, 72. Governor, Arthur H. James, 466; Gifford Pinchot, 75; Frank P. Thompson, 6; John N. Jones, 5; Charles J. Margiotti, 1. State Senator, Samuel E. Ewing, Jr., 302; Charles P. Cochran, 10; Franklin Spencer Edmonds, 208; Harold C. Pike, 2. County Committeeman, Joseph P. White, 278; Arthur L. Cooke, 274.

Baseball Champs

Face Season's Start Tomorrow With Great Lineup

When Gene Davis' baseball team faces Upper Darby tomorrow afternoon at the 69th Streeters' field, the nine players will be virtually the same as the squad who brought Narberth its 1937 championship.

Starting behind the bat will be Jack Eachus, no stranger to borough fans, who finally decided he could still deliver milk and play ball.

At first will be Buddy Walker, his injured knee permitting (and it seems O. K.), with Ben Drake, Haverford High star, ready in case.

Veteran Tanny Ralston will be at second with Nicky Meyers back at short, while George Gazzella will complete last year's infield at third.

As hurlers Gene has Al Hermann and Nick Lyons again, with Charley Spellman, Paoli's 1937 manager, as a newcomer and another right hander.

Walt Masters, ace pitcher of last year, will play with Allentown in the Eastern League, while another missing star will be Herb Ogden, slugging outfielder, who is to play in the Cape Cod League this season.

Outfielders for the Davismen will be Claude Bailey and Harry Fox, veterans, and one to be picked from a wealth of reserve material which includes Joe Rubincam, Jack Klein, Ritchie Griffin, George Lees.

Relief hurlers include Tommy Byrne, Bill Reynolds, Bill Bassett and John Miller.

Borough fans will get their chance to see the boys in action Sunday when Gladwyne visits the playground. Both week-end contests are Main Line League games.

Last week-end's scheduled independent games went to Jupiter Pluvius.

House-Warming

At Child Health Center. Other Women's Club Notes

Thirty-five officers and officers-elect and committee chairmen of the Women's Community Club of Narberth were entertained by the president, Mrs. E. W. Heymann, for luncheon and bridge at Erskine Hall, Haverford, Tuesday.

Mrs. Heymann will attend the luncheon which Mrs. Charles R. Ridington, president of the Montgomery County Federation of Women's Clubs, is giving to her executive board at North Wales Thursday, May 26. Mrs. Ridington was made first vice-president-at-large of the Pennsylvania State Federation at the convention in Pittsburgh this month.

Mrs. E. J. Pollock and Mrs. G. M. Coholan, chairman and associate respectively of the Program Committee of the Narberth Club, will attend the meeting of the County Program department at Andorra Inn, June 3.

Mrs. E. C. Griswold, junior advisor in the Senior Club, entertained the junior chairmen and board at dinner Wednesday evening at Erskine Hall.

Mrs. Heymann read an invitation at her luncheon from the Harold D. Speakman Post of the American Legion asking club members to join the Memorial Day parade leaving the community building at 9 A. M. May 30.

Mrs. C. L. Wells, chairman of the Fellowship Committee, is having her committee for luncheon and bridge at her home at one o'clock today.

A throng of community-minded citizens came to the house-warming the Narberth Child Health Center gave in its new quarters, at 102 Dudley avenue, yesterday, and expressed approval of the newly-decorated rooms, the new furniture and the practical conglomeric rugs. The rugs were donated by Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ayars. Mrs. Ayars is a new member of the Narberth Club. Mrs. W. N. Mills, staff member of the health center, made all the curtains. The desk was given by a Narberth Club member who prefers to remain anonymous. Over the desk hangs a picture of the late Mrs. Miriam Strauss, who worked on the health center staff for many years.

A Temperance Drama

"Prisoner at the Bar"—will be presented 8 P. M. this Sunday at the Narberth Methodist Church. There are 21 local players in the cast, recruited from the four local Protestant churches. Virgil P. Brock, of Indianapolis, has the leading role. The public is cordially invited.

end of the episode and all sing a hymn of praise and peace.

Part 2, episode 1, includes six tableaux depicting the life of Benjamin Franklin done by the boys of the eighth grade. Episode 2, Birth of the Nation, has several subdivisions in which the pupils from the 8th, 7th and 6th grades appear. There is a social ball in which the stately minuet is danced.

The next episode includes the Constitutional Convention and the final ratification of the Constitution. 8th grade boys and 6th grade girls appear in these. The fourth episode is entitled "Preserving a Nation;" it depicts the clash at Gettysburg. Next, the growth of the nation and finally a color guard made up of veterans of the Spanish American War, World War, Marine and Red Cross. The pageant will close with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner.

The pageant is under the general direction of W. James Drennan, principal of the school, assisted by his teaching staff. The narration was written by Miss Jeanette Dell and Mr. Harkness. Music, Miss Frances Fricke.

Allen Wetherill is in charge of dances and drills, assisted by Miss Eleanor Rarick. Miss Margaret Gassner and Richard Lehman are in charge of the Franklin scenes and Isaac Knoll is in charge of the electrical equipment. Miss Gassner, assisted by Miss Taylor, and the teachers of the various grades, have designed the costumes and Miss Mary Hoover is in charge of the tags which will admit you to the pageant.

Principal Drennan and his faculty express appreciation for the co-operation of parents in helping to make the costumes as well as in buying the tags.

The Political Pot

General Wayne District's Penn Valley residents gave James 573 to 33 for Pinchot, and Jones 60 to Kennedy's 10. For U. S. Senator, Owlett ran here surprisingly well, polling 152 votes to Davis' 321 and Stokes' 92. Earle had 64 to 14 for Wilson and 3 for McCloskey.

For State Senator, Edmonds took the district from Ewing by a close margin, 294-281.

John H. Link and Faith Farmer were unopposed County Committee victors.

Merion's new district No. 2 whose citizens vote on Narberth avenue, near the railroad, followed organization lines throughout:

It gave Senator Jim Davis 250 to 96 for his two opponents; James 360 to Pinchot's 21; and for State Senator, Edmonds 199 to Ewing's 177. Congressman Ditter, Representative Cadwalader and new State Committeeman Peters received good complimentary votes.

Its unopposed County Committee members are George F. Pettinos, Jr., 248; and Helen Dippy, 145.

District Democrats gave Earle 58, Wilson 12 and McCloskey, 8. Jones had 45 to Kennedy's 24 and Margiotti's 10. Alexander MacPhee, committeeman, received 53, and Frank Keegan, 2, while for committeewoman, Mildred Thompson was given 74.

Dr. Frank P. K. Barker, Gladwyne Township commissioner, was the only one of the last-minute withdrawal candidates to make any showing in Narberth. His name was on the ballot, opposing Fred C. Peters for State Committeeman (Republican) and his vote in the three districts, respectively, was 59, 64 and 27. Without being a candidate, he did nearly as well as Pinchot.

Burgess Frank A. Schrepfer and Walter J. Scott each received one complimentary vote for Republican Congressman in the first district.

In the third district Emily McDonnell received 25 votes for committeewoman and 14 more were meant for her by voters who used ten variations in spelling her name. A complimentary vote apiece was given to the spouses of the two Republican com-

APPRECIATION

Editor Elwood:

Permit me to thank those who supported me at the poll last Tuesday, and publicly to congratulate Joseph White on his election. I am sure the decision of the voters will make for party harmony in the fall election.

Sincerely,

ARTHUR L. COOKE.

Editor Elwood:

I wish to thank the workers and voters and all those who had to do with my victory in the First District.

JOSEPH P. WHITE.

Committee post victors, W. D. R. Evans and Mrs. Margaret U. Griswold.

Mrs. Elizabeth D. M. Kelley received three votes, one Republican, outside of her district for County Committeewoman, while Art Cooke, Joseph P. White and Mrs. Louise Cockrill were similarly favored.

Smith—Haist

The marriage of Miss Florence Dorothy Haist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haist, of Penn Valley, and Mr. Persifor Frazer Smith, 4th son of Mr. Persifor Frazer Smith, 3rd, of Paoli, took place Saturday afternoon, May 14, at four o'clock, in All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, whose rector, the Reverend Gibson Bell, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a model of white satin fashioned on princess lines trimmed with duchess lace, and long tight-fitting sleeves. Her veil of tulle which fell from a cap of duchess lace extended over a very long train. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

Mrs. Stanley Goedell, of Drexel Hill, was matron of honor and Miss Elizabeth Scott, of Wynnewood, maid of honor. Mrs. James Roberts, of Bala, and Mrs. Oliver Jackson, of Haverford, were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of blue taffeta with tight bodices and full skirts, ranging in tone from a pale blue to the deeper pastel shades. The attendants wore large leghorn hats trimmed with marline matching the shade of their gowns. They carried delphinium and yellow daisies.

Mr. William Earl, of Paoli, was best man; ushers included Mr. William Hugler, of Wayne; Mr. Horace Horton, of Bryn Mawr, and Mr. William Orem, of Paoli.

Mrs. Haist wore a gown of dusty rose chiffon and a large picture hat. Her corsage was of orchids. Mrs. George Gilpin, aunt of the bride, wore a model of pink French brocade and a large picture hat of the same material. Her corsage was of lilies of the valley and tea roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Red Roof, the home of the bride's aunt in Penn Valley. Mr. Smith and his bride, who are on a several weeks' wedding trip in the South, will live in Chadd's Ford, Pa., where they are building a new home.

Made Doctor of Music

The degree of Doctor of Music was awarded to Bruce C. Beach, head of the music department of Lower Merion Senior High School, at the sixtieth annual commencement exercises of the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music.

Dr. Beach, who is a member of the faculty of the conservatory, received the degree for advanced musical study during the past several years. This work was culminated by the completion of a book entitled "The Creative Impulse" and of a symphony "Plaza." This latter composition is the first symphony ever written specifically for ballet use.

Is Given in Dr. Walton's
Invention

Dr. William G. Walton, optometrist, of Anthwyn road, Merion, has just released to the profession his latest invention, "The Walton Eye Exerciser."

This instrument is a device for exercising the extrinsic muscles of the eyes, under the supervision of a qualified refractionist, and is intended for exercising at home.

Dr. Walton has to his credit several instruments used in the examination of the eyes.

"The Walton Phorimeter," used for measuring the balance of the muscles of the eyes at the reading distance, has been used by the profession since 1912.

For 30 years "The Walton Blinder," an instrument for use in exercising Amblyopic (lazy) eyes has been and still is considered the standard occluder in the field.

Is Your Child Safe From Diphtheria?

Wherever a city has conducted an intensive campaign to have children protected against diphtheria, the results have been excellent. In New York City, the 1930 campaign resulted in 4458 fewer cases and 305 fewer deaths than the average for the six previous years. Philadelphia had 3887 cases in 1925; in 1934 there were 206 cases with only 22 deaths.

In the five years, 1925-1929, Lower Merion Township had 141 cases with 6 deaths; in the five years, 1930-1935, there were 50 cases with 2 deaths. There have been no deaths since 1934. Yet the population of Lower Merion Township has steadily increased, through these years.

All these splendid results were obtained by immunizing only part of the children. If every child were given protection, diphtheria would be wiped out in the community. To reach this goal, we must protect each year's crop of infants. Protect your child now. See your family doctor. Watch this paper for more information.

GRANDPA VANDERHOF AND THE SYCAMORE GIRLS
Played by Aldrich Bowker, Margaret Callahan and Bobbe Arnst

"You Can't Take It With You" Now at Locust Street Theatre

The largest audiences of the season are flocking to see Broadway's widely praised stage hit, "You Can't Take It With You," at the Locust Street Theatre, Philadelphia, where it has been running since Easter.

Written by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, "You Can't Take It With You" won the Pulitzer prize as the best play produced in 1937. It is presented with the brilliant cast that recently ended a year's run in Chicago.

The play is an uproarious comedy, but underlying its high-tension fun there is a vein of quaint, wholesome philosophy which endears its central character, Grandpa Vanderhof, to the audience.

For the few remaining weeks of its Philadelphia run "You Can't Take It With You" will be presented at greatly reduced prices.

No changes have been made in the company since the opening, when the Philadelphia critics, reviewing the performance, bestowed lavish praise upon Mr. Bowker, Eva Condon, Bobbe Arnst, Charlotte Walker, Margaret Callahan, Emma Bunting, Henry Richards, William Roselle, Frederick Forrester and others making up the large cast.

Popular matinees are played on Wednesday and Saturday and performances begin at 2.35 and 8.35.

The Fireside

Plans are being completed for a bridge and swimming party to be given at Sunnyside, the home of Mrs. Henry W. Pfeffer, Penn Valley, on Friday, June 3, for the benefit of the Altar Guild of All Saints' Church, Wynnewood.

Mrs. Clarence Speakman, Hampden avenue, has returned from a visit with Commander and Mrs. Charles Shaw, Amherst, Mass., formerly of Narberth.

Mrs. Thomas Kelley, of Doylestown, and Mrs. Catherine Curley, of Overbrook, spent Monday with Mrs. Charles Kendrick, 121 Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Corder and Miss Betty Jane Herron, of Phoenix, Arizona, are visiting the K. G. Summers, of Woodside avenue. Mrs. Corder and Miss Herron are Mrs. Summers' sisters and formerly lived here. Upon their return to Phoenix, next Monday, they will be accompanied by Mrs. Summers and children, and Miss Emily Scott, of 119 Woodside avenue, who will spend several weeks in Arizona and then tour California before returning home.

Firemen's Fund

Of $25,000 Was Reported at the End of the Seventh Year

The report of total assets was made at the recent annual meeting of the L. M. Township Firemen's Relief Association.

Re-elected president was Walter C. Neely, Merion, who also is president of the Union Fire Association of Bala-Cynwyd, and other officers chosen were Monroe H. Anders, Ardmore, vice-president; Peter C. Hess, Bala, treasurer, and Joseph Scargill, secretary.

Directors and their companies are Warren Aldred, Union Fire Association; Benjamin Davis, West Manayunk Fire Company; Paul Giersch, Bryn Mawr Company, and Van Titman, Penn Wynne-Overbrook Hills Company.

Trustees named are Mr. Neely, for the Union and West Manayunk companies; Fred P. Wright, for the Bryn Mawr company, and Fred C. Peters, for the Merion Fire Company of Ardmore and the Penn Wynne-Overbrook Hills unit.

Organized in February, 1931, the association now has 200 active volunteer firemen as members, and its assets have increased from $1869.52 to $23,500, the latter in government bonds.

"Our plan of operation," according to Mr. Neely, "is to pay $20 for the first week of disability and $5 for every week thereafter, to any member injured in the discharge of his duties as a volunteer fireman connected with any of the five companies composing the Fire Department of Lower Merion Township."

Active firemen's dues are one dollar a year.

Nix on Jail

For Drunken Drivers, Said Frederick B. Smilie

Addressing the M. L. Kiwanis Club recently, he said:

"Sending a man to jail for drunken driving does no good," he declared, "and I am opposed to it because it encourages perjury. Many men, who are good citizens, when faced with the prospect of a $200 fine, costs and a possible jail sentence, will perjure themselves."

"In addition, it is very difficult to obtain convictions for drunken driving because juries are loath to return a guilty verdict for a reputable citizen when a jail sentence is involved."

The District Attorney said he was in favor of re-vocation of driver's licenses for convicted drunken drivers.

His Inventions

Were the Diverting Topic of Everett H. Bickley

At the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. The new member, whose residence is 19 Penarth road, Bala-Cynwyd, said his first invention, in 1900, when he was 14, was an adding machine.

A cocoa-boil-over-preventer, that rings a bell at 200 degrees, did not prove popular, nor did a bed-clothes-thermometer-teller, which shows how many blankets or sheets are needed for a temperature below 79 degrees. . . . this invention required record-taking for four years.

Bickley devices that are on the market, right profitably, include gadgets for cars, automatic stop for phonograph, photo-electric commercial devices, automatic radio controls, color analyzers, hay fever pollen sifters, aids for photographers, and the Moto-graph moving electric signs.

Mr. Bickley's home is full of novel inventions. . . . He is a ping-pong, puzzle and art fan, and is fond of water sports. . . . Has traveled extensively. . . . Born in Cuba, N. Y., graduate of Carnegie Tech with a B.S. degree. . . . Has served as designing engineer, research engineer and efficiency engineer for leading manufacturing companies.

Next Wednesday at 12.15 local Rotarians will join in greeting Maurice Duperrey, president of Rotary International, at the Philadelphia Club's luncheon in the Bellevue-Stratford.

Suburban Fire

Rates Reduced

A reduction in fire insurance rates on dwellings in suburban counties, has been announced by the suburban division of the Middle Department Rating Association.

Savings for home owners has been made possible by a general revision in the classification of rates as the result of a new ratio in losses from fire. Owing to better fireproof construction and better fire protection, losses computed for a wide area have been decreasing. The gradual decrease in these losses are reflected in the rate savings.

The savings will amount to one-half to two cents on every $100 paid for fire insurance over a period of one year. The new rates are as follows:

Brick or stone dwelling with approved roof covering, 13 cents on the building and 18 cents on the contents. Brick or stone dwelling with combustible roof covering, 14 cents on the building and 19 cents on the contents.

Frame or iron dwelling with approved roof covering, 15 and one-half cents on the building and 20 and one-half cents on the contents.

Frame or iron dwelling combustible roof covering, 17 and one-half cents on the building and 22 and one-half cents on the contents.

Local fire insurance agencies will handle the revision for residents insuring their properties.

Building construction merrily continues to pile up increases locally. Lower Merion's first third of the year is $50,000 ahead of the 1937 period and on April 30 totaled better than a million and a half dollars in permits. Narberth's huge increase is chiefly due to the Narberth Apartments' project.

It helps your paper when you tell the advertisers you noticed their ads.

Seeking Senatorship,

Governor George H. Earle carried Narberth, and all of Lower Merion except Gladwyne.

James vs. Jones

Will be the November contention, as the result of Judge James' overwhelming victory over Gifford Pinchot for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. He won Narberth and Lower Merion, as did the Democrats' Jones.

The Victory

Was a triumph for the G. O. P. leaders, local as well as national, and reflects credit to Township Leader Peter C. Hess and to Fred Peters, county commissioners' president, who was elected to the State Republican Committee.

Democratic Leader

Joseph T. Magarity, of Narberth, won his District No. 1 Committee fight (as did Republican Joseph P. White), and with John T. Durnin, town-and-township leader, gave a stinging defeat to the Guffey-C. I. O. forces.

What's the use of science, anyway? An apple tree has just been made to grow roses, but the apples still have cores, and the roses, thorns.

WILLIAM G. FRANKENFIELD is new vice-president of the Ardmore Rotary Club and Walter E. Rosen-garten is president, with J. Edgar Barkman as treasurer.

Commencement

At Lower Merion High June 3; Other School Dates

Lower Merion Senior High Commencement will be June 3, Superintendent S. E. Downs reported to township School Board Monday evening.

Other school dates are: Annual grammar school entertainment, May 26; baccalaureate service, May 29; Senior High Class Day, June 1; Junior High School Night, June 7.

The Board approved five additional courses to be included in next fall's curriculum: Two elective English courses, one in contemporary literature and the other in literature and the art; an elective course in French to stress written French and the customs of France; and an elective combined course for college preparatory students in algebra and geometry, and a required combined course in office practice and penmanship.

Summer school sessions will be held from June 20 to July 29.

A budget of $1,268,300 or $188,877 less than last year, was adopted for 1938-39 and the 11 mill tax rate retained. There is no per capita school tax in Lower Merion.

Mrs. Mary Nolan

died suddenly at 4:30 A. M. Wednesday from a heart attack, at her home, 105 Dudley avenue.

A resident of Narberth for 35 years, her death came as a shock to her many friends and neighbors.

It is expected the funeral will be held Saturday morning, with services at St. Margaret's Church, and that friends may call at the residence this Friday evening.

Mrs. Nolan is survived by a daughter, Anna, and a son, Edward.

Time Out

Coach Fetter's baseball team has turned in only a very few victories this season, but the boys have played some very fine and interesting games. The two Abington engagements were typical of the idea. Lower Merion lost the first of these up at Old York Road by the score of 1 to 0. Cunningham, Abington's ace twirler, held the locals to three hits, while Bob Tyson limited the victors to two hits. Loose fielding and slow thinking in a hot spot permitted the Big Reds to get their lone tally across. The return game, played on Pennypacker Field, was another 1 run victory for Abington. Another tight game was turned in by Tyson, Narberth's contribution to the Maroon team. Hits were scarce for both teams, but the Old York lads managed to get that extra runner across home plate.

Last Monday the Bulldogs journeyed to Upper Darby in a return contest with Lew Goas' nine. Clint Alexander, big Maroon right hander, held the Uptahs to 5 scattered hits, while the locals were piling up eight or nine. Yet Upper Darby won 3 to 0. A couple of loose infield contributions caused the upset.

Roger Lincoln's Junior High track team added another meet to their string of victories Tuesday afternoon on Pennypacker Field. Coatesville brought a scrappy track squad to Ardmore, but the visitors had to be content with a deficit of some thirty odd points.

The well-balanced squad of track artists which represent the senior high school journeyed to Lafayette College at Easton last Saturday and again showed their superiority. Coach Drumm's track and field laddies piled up 52½ points to top one of Schenectady's high schools by 7½ points.

Narberth's Softball

Team was thrown into a fifth-place tie with Buick Tuesday night when the latter team defeated the boroughites, 6-5. The auto men were behind three runs in the final inning, when Haver hoisted one for a homer with three men on base.

Chamber Music

Ensemble Will Play Monday. Miss Fishburn to Sing

Monday, May 23, at 8.15 P. M., there will take place an event of considerable importance, the appearance on the concert platform of the Main Line's own Chamber Music Ensemble. Its members, from all along the line, have been brought together by Maurice Ben Stad, a director distinguished as a teacher and cellist of note. The Wayne Art Center's music chairman, Miss H. Velma Turner, for six years has been urging the Art Center to espouse the cause of chamber music. It is to these two then that the Main Line must express its thanks next Monday evening, when the purpose and the plan become a reality, and quite fittingly in the studio of Miss Turner, 407 St. David's road, St. David's.

Miss Nancy B. Fishburn, contralto at All Saints, Wynnewood, will sing, accompanied by Franklin L. Baldwin, and the ensemble will play.
